

Third, the Number, Quorum, and Designation of the Trustees:

The number of the Trustees shall be twenty-four, and fifteen thereof shall constitute a quorum, but the assent of not less than a majority of the whole, to wit, thirteen, shall be necessary for affirmative action in the execution of the trusts herein contained.

Quorum of Trustees and number of votes necessary for action

The Trustees herein named and their successors, in their collective capacity, shall be known and designated as "The Board of Trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University."

Fourth:

That the Trustees (subject to the reservations and to the rights to alter and amend hereinafter contained) shall have power, and it shall be their duty:

Duties of Board of Trustees

1. To meet in the City of San Francisco on the fourteenth day of November, 1885, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and then and there, a majority of their number being present, to organize as a Board by electing one of their number Chairman, and to transact such other business as may be proper.

Election of officers of Board

2. To manage and control the institution hereby founded.

3. To manage and control the trust property, care for and improve the same, operate or lease it, and apply the net proceeds or profits thereof to the purposes of the trust hereby created.

4. To, in their discretion, receive grants of property from others in aid of the Institution founded, or to establish Scholarships therein—providing the same are made upon terms and conditions in harmony with the purposes of the Institution as herein declared.

Gifts from others than Founders

5. To receive from the grantors, or either of them, by grant or devise, such other property as the grantors or either of them may hereafter elect to give, and to hold such property upon the same conditions, and to the same uses and trusts, as are herein prescribed.

6. To make By-Laws not inconsistent with the laws of this State, or the purposes of this grant, for the government of the Institution hereby founded.

By-laws authorized

7. To make rules and regulations for the management of the trust property.

8. To keep a full and fair record of their proceedings.

9. To appoint a President of the University, who shall not be one of their number, and to remove him at will.

Appointment and removal of President

10. To employ professors and teachers at the University.

11. To fix the salaries of the President, professors, and teachers, and to fix them at such rates as will secure to the University the services of men of the very highest attainment.

Salaries of teachers

- Income only to be expended 12. To use the rents, issues, and profits of the trust property (but no part of the principal) in the execution of their trust, and in case such rents, issues, and profits, for any one year, exceed the amount necessary to execute the trust, and maintain the Institution for said year, then to invest the same until its use becomes necessary.
- Educational system to fit graduate for some useful pursuit 13. To establish and maintain at such University an educational system which will, if followed, fit the graduate for some useful pursuit, and to this end to cause the pupils, as early as may be, to declare the particular calling, which in life they may desire to pursue; but such declaration shall not be binding if, in the judgment of the President of the University, the student is not by nature fitted for the pursuit declared.
- Sectarian instruction prohibited 14. To prohibit sectarian instruction, but to have taught in the University the immortality of the soul, the existence of an all-wise and benevolent Creator, and that obedience to His laws is the highest duty of man.
- Rights and advantages of association and cooperation 15. To have taught in the University the right and advantages of association and cooperation.
16. To afford equal facilities and give equal advantages in the University to both the sexes.
17. To maintain on the Palo Alto Estate a farm for instruction in Agriculture in all its branches.
18. To do and perform all things hereinafter provided for, and all things necessary to the proper exercise and discharge of their trust.
- Powers of President Fifth, the Powers and Duties of the President of the University:
It shall be the duty of the Trustees to give to the President of the University the following powers:
1. To prescribe the duties of the professors and teachers.
2. To remove professors and teachers at will.
3. To prescribe and enforce the course of study and the mode and manner of teaching.
4. Such other powers as will enable him to control the educational part of the University to such an extent that he may justly be held responsible for the course of study therein and for the good conduct and capacity of the professors and teachers.
- The Faculty Sixth, the Faculty:
The Trustees shall constitute the President and professors the faculty of the University, and prescribe their powers and duties as such.
